EPRB/LOC The committee met & plans for Ranch classes will be on the ballot.

Scholarship Fund: $3,407.26 in the fund. BSU returned the scholarship check awarded to Asia Reich. . The scholarship will be reserved for Asia's future use.

:Point persons: The points are finalized & the points people Danette & Pam have been paid. Thank you ladies for an awesome job.

Old business: Still waiting on final ruling on the 501-C status.

New business: Tish has revamped the versatility sheets, so they will be easier to fill out. They will be presented at the banquet. The walk/trot classes for ranch were discussed & those classes will be on the ballot also. Tish will re-vamp the patterns & submit to John. Anne presented a sample ballot for discussion. Some corrections were made. Anne & Bev will mail the ballots. All ballots will be numbered.

Tish asked for a committee to help plan shows & awards. These people volunteered Tish, Jamece, Felicia, Tammi & Megan Flood.

John suggested we have someone review some of the QH & APHA judges resumes to see if they hold Pinto cards.also. Anne volunteered Karaly to do a list of 10 or so judges, to be presented to the executive committee to select judges for the double point shows. Anne volunteered to hire the judges if ISHSA will give specifics to be added to the contracts.

Motion to close meeting Bev /Tammi Approved. Next meeting Dec 2nd @ 7:00pm at Tish's home.
